Bourbon Circuit Court.

JUDGE CANTRILL and the attorneys are still grinding away with the equity business. The most important of these was that of Mrs. A. E. Wilson against her son-in-law, John Roseberry, to have a former judgment quieting a title set aside. The case was decided in favor of Mrs. Wilson. It is understood that Mr.
Roseberry will appeal. The result of this judgment is to re-open the old equity action of Roseberry vs. Wilson.

"Cottie" Neagle's Patent.

C. F. Neagle formerly of Paris, now of Lexington, has patented a device for use of horsemen to develop "high acting" horses in their training. It works perfectly and does away with the use of the heavy shoes and the whip heretofore used in such development.

STAGE STORIES.

Amusement Announcements, Lobby Chat ter—Odd Bits of Gossip.
MAHARAS'S MINSTRELS.

There will be fun galore at the opera house Dec. 25 upon which occasion Mahara's Colored Minstrels will appear.
The show is a large one this season, and the managers advise us that it is a great diversion from the ordinary minstrels.
The first part is said to be the finest ever conceived. It has always been the endeavor of Mahara Brothers to have nothing but the best and plenty of it. We are assured the singing and dancing features, as well as comedies, can not be excelled. There will be a sensational street parade at noon by the famous Darktown Band, considered one of the finest bands traveling. There will be a special Christmas matinee at 2 o'clock.

Men's and women's slippers, a great variety to choose from, and nothing more useful and appropriate for Christmas presents.
